CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

CASE NO. 1:22-CR-00232-BLW-BAM

18 U.S.C. § 1962(d) – Conspiracy to Participate in a
Racketeering Enterprise; 18 U.S.C. § 1959(a)(1) –
Murder in Aid of Racketeering (6 Counts); 18 U.S.C.
§ 1959(a)(3), (5) – Assault with a Dangerous Weapon
and Attempted Murder in Aid of Racketeering

1                                    SECOND SUPERSEDING INDICTMENT

2                    GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

3                    At all times relevant to this Indictment:

4                                    The Racketeering Enterprise: Mara Salvatrucha (MS-13)

5                    1.        Mara Salvatrucha ("MS-13") is a criminal organization whose members and associates
6 engaged in drug trafficking and acts of violence, including acts involving murder, extortion, kidnapping,
7 and assault.

8                    2.        Since the mid-1980's, MS-13 has operated throughout California, Washington D.C., 9 Nevada, New York, Central America, Mexico, and elsewhere. Some of MS-13's operations during this 10 time period took place in Mendota, California, Eastern District of California.

11                   3.        MS-13, including its leaders, members, and associates, constitutes an "enterprise," as 12 defined in Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1959(b)(2) and 1961(4) ("the enterprise"), that is, a 13 group of individuals associated in fact that engages in and the activities of which affect interstate and 14 foreign commerce. The enterprise constitutes an ongoing organization whose members function as a 15 continuing unit for a common purpose of achieving the objectives of the enterprise.

16                   4.        The defendants:

- 17                   a)        MARTIN ALFREDO LEIVA-LEIVA, aka "Dark," aka "Dar," 18                   b)        JOSE RENE BARRERA-MARTINEZ, aka "Fugitivo," 19                   c)        ANGEL ANTONIO DIAZ-MORALES, aka "Pecador," 20                   d)        LUIS FAUSINO DIAZ-PINEDA, aka "Furioso," aka "Minero," 21                   e)        JUAN CARLOS URIAS-TORRES, aka "Grande," aka "Master," 22                   f)        ANGEL ANTONIO CASTRO-ALFARO, aka "Tony Weed," aka "Discipulo," 23                   g)        JOSE JOAQUIN ORELLANA, aka "Soberbio," 24                   h)        JULIO CESAR RECINOS-SORTO, aka "Guero"
25                   i)        JOSE ARMANDO TORRES-GARCIA, aka "Driver," 26                   j)        JOSE SANTOS HERNANDEZ-OTERO, aka "Doble" and 27                   k)        OSCAR ARMANDO ORELLANA GUEVARA, aka "Paciente," aka "CUCHE"
28 were members and associates of MS-13.

Membership

6. MS-13 operates through subsets, mentioned above, known as “cliques,” which are usually named for a street within a clique’s territory, or for the neighborhood in which the clique operates. MS-13 has approximately 20 cliques operating in Los Angeles, including, but not limited to, “Parkview,” “Vatos Locos Salvatruchos,” and “Francis Locos.”

7. A clique adds new members through an initiation ritual known as “jumping in,” during which several existing MS-13 members beat up a prospective MS-13 member for 13 seconds. Once jumped in, an MS-13 member is expected to participate fully in MS-13’s criminal activities.

9. “Homeboys” control the gang’s activities, despite often times not being located in the same city. Homeboys influence that gang’s activity remotely through communicating with other members through phone calls and social media communications. They decide if and when a murder occurs and which gang members can be involved in the crime. Homeboys also make decisions that impact Enterprise membership, such as whether or not new members are added, and what members can be promoted.

10. In Mendota, the primary rival to MS-13 is the Bulldogs criminal street gang. The MS-13 cliques in Mendota, CA view the Bulldogs as a threat to the El Salvadoran community and regularly

1 participate in patrols to attack Bulldog gang members. The MS-13 Enterprise uses the violence to 2 expand its control of Mendota and to rid the town of rival gangs. Mid-ranking MS-13 Enterprise
3 members in Mendota, known as "Chequeos" often respond to requests through social media from non-
4 Enterprise affiliated El Salvadorans who are being harassed by rival gangs, including the Bulldogs.
5 Chequeos will respond to these requests and intimidate or attack the rival gang member. MS-13
6 Enterprise members in Mendota believe that by doing this they earn the trust and respect of the El
7 Salvadoran community and deter reporting by the community to law enforcement of crimes committed 8 by MS-13 Enterprise members.

9 11. MS-13 Enterprise members in Mendota must follow clearly established rules of the 10 Enterprise or face discipline.

11 12. MS-13 Enterprise members in Mendota often receive instructions from higher ranking
12 Enterprise members in Los Angeles, Santa Maria, and Oakland. Many times, these instructions involve 13 traveling to Los Angeles or Oakland to support the Enterprise's agenda, including conducting assaults,
14 helping wanted subjects travel to escape law enforcement, and transporting drugs and firearms on behalf
15 of the Enterprise.

16 13. MS-13 members write or paint graffiti in the areas they control to identify the area as 17 controlled by MS-13.

18 14. Narcotics sales provide the bulk of MS-13's profits. Individual MS-13 members who sell
19 narcotics are often required to provide a portion of their narcotics proceeds to the shot caller of the 20 clique. This money is used by the shot caller for a variety of purposes, including paying the clique's
21 rent to the overall MS-13 leader, paying legal fees for MS-13 members in need, helping MS-13
22 members in need in El Salvador and other points abroad, and purchasing weapons that are maintained by 23 the clique in their territory. If a clique member earns money for the clique by selling drugs or other 24 criminal ventures, and contributes a portion to the shot caller, this money is oftentimes considered their 25 rent contribution to the clique.

26 15. MS-13 also derives income from the extortion of street and food vendors who operate in 27 MS-13 controlled territory. On a clique level, the clique shot caller identifies targets for extortion and 28 coordinates which clique member is authorized to collect extortion from each vendor. MS-13 extorts

1 both legitimate and illegitimate businesses alike, though MS-13 tends to focus on illegitimate or “grey-
2 market” businesses. These businesses are often owned or run by illegal immigrants, who rarely report
3 this extortion to law enforcement, despite the threats of violence which accompany the extortion.

4 Codes of Conduct

5 16. MS-13 has a self-imposed code of conduct, which is imposed and enforced to maintain
6 compliance among its members. MS-13 enforces its rules and promotes discipline among its members
7 by imposing monetary fines and threatening and committing acts of violence against members who 8 break the rules. This is known as being “courted” or “regulated.” MS-13, through its leadership or 9 individual cliques, can vote for MS-13 members to be disciplined for violating MS-13’s rules or code of 10 conduct. Depending on the severity of the violation, MS-13, through its leadership or individual cliques, 11 will decide whether the violator will receive a beating for 13, 26, or 39 seconds, all multiples of 13, and 12 will select at least three to four MS-13 members to administer the beatings, with one member counting 13 aloud the seconds. The premise underlying these punishments is that a person who broke a rule should 14 be punished by beatings for either 13 seconds, or for a multiple of 13 seconds. Additionally, for even 15 more serious violations of MS-13’s rules, MS-13, through its leadership or individual cliques, may vote
16 to introduce weapons into the beatings, to include knives, bats and/or pipes. Once an MS-13 member 17 has been disciplined, the individual cliques may also vote to eject the disciplined member from their 18 cliques. If a member is voted out of the clique, he/she must be “jumped out” of the clique, which means 19 that member will receive another beating. However, that member may join a different MS-13 clique, if 20 the new clique votes to accept that member. To join a new clique, that member must be “jumped in,” or 21 beaten for a designated period of time, usually 13 seconds.

22 17. MS-13 has zero tolerance for members and associates who cooperate with law
23 enforcement. Once MS-13 has evidence that someone has cooperated with law enforcement, by 24 receiving and reviewing law enforcement reports or videos of interviews, MS-13 issues a “green light”
25 as to that person, which is an order that if any MS-13 member sees the person who is allegedly or 26 actually cooperating with law enforcement, that person is to be killed on sight.

27 18. MS-13 members also engage in acts of violence against innocent citizens and rival gang
28 members in their territory. Participation in violent acts increases the respect accorded to members who

1 commit violent acts. Additionally, commission of violent acts by MS-13 members enhances the gang's
2 overall reputation for violence in the community, resulting in the intimidation of citizens in MS-13's
3 territory.

4 Purposes of the Enterprise

5 19. The purposes of the Enterprise include, but are not limited to, the following:

6 a) Enriching the members and associates of the Enterprise through, among other
7 things, gun sales, narcotics sales, and extortion, as well as the remittance of proceeds generated
8 as a result of MS-13's criminal activities (referred to as "taxes"), and conducting other profit-
9 driven illegal activities in Fresno County and elsewhere;

10 b) Preserving, promoting, and protecting the power, territory, and profits of MS-13
11 and its members and associates, through threats of violence and actual acts of violence, including 12 acts involving murder, extortion, and assault;

13 c) Maintaining MS-13's control and authority over its territory, and over illegal
14 activities occurring in MS-13 "territory" within Fresno County, California, including keeping the 15 public-at-large in fear of the Enterprise, and in fear of its members and associates through 16 violence and threats of violence;

17 d) Protecting MS-13 members and associates who have committed crimes, by 18 hindering, obstructing, and preventing law enforcement officers from identifying, apprehending, 19 and successfully prosecuting and punishing the offenders; and 20 e) Violently retaliating against rival gang members or perceived outsiders who have 21 challenged MS-13's authority, disrespect MS-13 members and associates, or who failed to pay 22 debts owed to MS-13 members and associates.

23 Methods and Means used by MS-13

24 20. The means and methods by which MS-13 leaders, members, and associates conduct and 25 participate in the conduct of the affairs of the criminal enterprise include the following:

26 a) Members of the Enterprise and their associates committed, attempted, conspired,
27 and threatened to commit acts of violence, including murder, kidnapping, extortion, and drug 28 trafficking to protect and expand the Enterprise's criminal operations.

b) Members of the Enterprise and their associates promoted a climate of fear through violence and threats of violence.

c) Members of the Enterprise and their associates used and threatened to use physical violence against rival gang members, neighborhood residents and visitors, and to violently discipline insubordinate members of the Enterprise;

d) Members of the Enterprise and their associates engaged in extortion of local businesses.

e) Members of the Enterprise and their associates trafficked in various controlled substances, including marijuana, methamphetamine, and prescription drugs.

f) Members and associates of the Enterprise frequently engaged in the aforementioned criminal activity in the presence of other MS-13 gang members and/or associates to enhance the status within MS-13 of those affirmatively conducting criminal acts; and

g) Members and associates of the Enterprise used various techniques to avoid law enforcement scrutiny of the Enterprise's criminal activities and to evade and frustrate law enforcement, such as the use of coded language to discuss criminal activities, the use of internet-based methods of communication, movement of MS-13 members and associates from Mendota to other areas and from other areas to Mendota when wanted by law enforcement, and other counter-surveillance techniques.

Symbols

21. MS-13 members sometimes signify their membership with tattoos reading “Mara Salvatrucha,” “MS,” “MS-13,” or other variations of the gang’s name. MS-13 members typically refer to other members by their monikers, or nicknames, and often do not know fellow gang members’ legal names.

22. Some members of the VLS and PVLS have admitted their gang membership to local detectives, and a number of the VLS and PVLS members have tattoos that reflect Enterprise affiliation. These tattoos include words and symbols that refer to the Mara Salvatrucha Enterprise name, such as “MS,” “Vatos Locos,” or “Park View,” or a reference to being a member of MS-13, such as “MS-13,” three dots, skulls, sad/happy faces, 503, 504 or the triangle symbol as seen on the El Salvador flag.
